Apologies. You have come to this page and your eyes are not deceiving you. There's no article here. It will be the fourth in a series of articles in the International Relations 101 section about "understanding international relations and foreign policy decision making." These articles seek to make this complex, multi-dimensional arena accessible to people outside the halls of power. The series also pulls duty as a necessary backdrop for understanding the wisdom-based alternative approaches to the field that are being developed by The Wisdom Project. I am still in the process of writing this particular article around some other deadlines and will put it up here as soon as I can. Check back occasionally. If you are interested in this subject before the article is ready, do feel free to reach me using the Contact page. If I'm not traveling, you should hear back from me the same day.
